NATIONAL PHILOPTOCHOS PRESIDENT APHRODITE SKEADAS ANNOUNCES RELOCATION OF NATIONAL PHILOPTOCHOS OFFICE

New York, New York – National Philoptochos President Aphrodite Skeadas announced today the relocation of the National Philoptochos Office to its new headquarters at 7 West 55th Street, New York, NY on the seventh floor of the building adjacent to and part of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

National Philoptochos is particularly pleased to continue to house the National Philoptochos Office within a Church environment. National Philoptochos is relocating from its current office at the Greek Orthodox Holy Trinity Cathedral on East 74th St. in New York City.

President Skeadas acknowledged two National Board members for their dedication in executing the relocation: Kassandra Romas, National Philoptochos Office Relocation Chairperson, who with her committee worked diligently and tirelessly to locate the best possible space for the organization and Anita Kartalopoulos, National Philoptochos Legal Advisor, for her dedication in executing the legal process to its successful outcome. Relocating the national office with such speed and efficiency permits the organization to continue its philanthropic operations in a seamless manner.

National Philoptochos is the duly accredited women's philanthropic society of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America. Its mission is, "To promote charitable, benevolent and philanthropic outreach, to preserve the sanctity of life and family, and to perpetuate and to promote our Orthodox faith and traditions." National Philoptochos is comprised of approximately 490 Chapters across the United States with over 27,500 Philoptochos members.

Securing a new office location is a milestone in Philoptochos' history and marks the commencement of the long term goal to purchase a permanent National Philoptochos home for future generations.
